To parents of children in Middle School

Dear Parents

As the end of term approaches, I thought you may find it useful to have details of the last two weeks of term.

Monday, 12th December: The Wind in the Willows– Middle School will all travel to Newbury to enjoy the Watermill Theatre's production of The Wind in the Willows. We are due to arrive back at 5.15pm when the children should be collected from Middle School. Children should wear their school uniform including their blazers.

Tuesday, 13th December: Middle School Christmas Celebrations – The children will enjoy a medley of Christmas fun at the end of the morning of the 13th to celebrate the end of term. They will have the opportunity to make some Christmas crafts and take part in traditional party games followed by our Christmas lunch. The children should bring smart, traditional party clothes that are clearly named in a bag or their rucksack to change into for the celebrations. They should, however, still arrive at school in their uniform as this will need to be worn to lessons throughout the day.

For details regarding the last day of term, please see the separate letter sent from Mr Nott.

I hope the above explains everything clearly. However, if you have further questions then please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Rachel Williams
