To parents of children in Year 5

Dear Parents

On Tuesday, 9th February, all of the children in Year 5 have been invited to take part in 'An Evening of Words and Music' at 7pm in the Barn.

It is a chance for some of the children to read aloud the poems they have chosen for their forthcoming LAMDA exams. Other children will be asked to perform a piece of music, in preparation for the Associate Board Music exams.

After school has finished, the children will meet me in the Barn, where they will have some supervised free time, after which they will all go to the Oak Room for tea. Please let me know if you would rather pick your child up after school and take them home for a while. I ask that if you do this, they are back in school for 6.30pm.

I hope it will be a relaxing, informal evening, giving you the opportunity to see the range of skills and talents that are emerging within the year group.

I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible.

Yours sincerely
